

Information for Contributors

The Canadian Journal of Human Sexuality (CJHS) is a quarterly publication of SIECCAN, the Sex Information and Education Council of Canada. The journal publishes manuscripts from a variety of disciplines related to the study of human sexuality. Scholarly submissions including quantitative and qualitative empirical research reports, literature reviews, and critical analyses will be considered for publication. Decisions about acceptance of a manuscript for publication are made by the editor, based upon the recommendation of peer reviewers (see inside front cover of the journal for a list of CJHS Editorial Board Members). Book, audiovisual, and website reviews will also be considered for publication in the journal. Commentaries, program descriptions, learning modules and lesson plans, brief book, audiovisual, and website reviews, and case reports will be considered for publication in the SIECCAN Newsletter section of the journal.

All manuscripts, book reviews and other materials submitted to CJHS should be presented according to the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (5th ed.). Prospective authors are encouraged to review recent issues of CJHS to familiarize themselves with the structure, style and depth of manuscripts published in the journal. Manuscripts should be submitted in English. Research, literature review, and critical analyses manuscripts should include an abstract of not more than 250 words and a list of 3-5 key words.

Manuscripts should be submitted by e-mail to alex@sieccan.org. Type "Submission to CJHS" in the subject line. The manuscript should be attached as a Microsoft Word document. A cover letter addressed to Michael Barrett, Ph.D., Editor, The Canadian Journal of Human Sexuality, should also be included as a separate attachment. The cover letter should state that the manuscript or data presented have not been previously published in a journal and are not currently under consideration elsewhere. If applicable, the author(s) should briefly state the ethical review process that was employed. In the text of the e-mail, author(s) are requested to ask for an acknowledgement of receipt of the manuscript.
